The 'Talent in Mobility' awards honour women and men working to nurture public transport and sustainable mobility across Europe.

The awards are an extremely effective way of highlighting European actors who, at various stages of their career, deserve recognition from the profession as a whole.

You almost certainly have some Talents to suggest to us from among those working with your enterprise, startup, local authority, institution or association!

How to get Involved

► Who can suggest candidates ?

Anyone in the public transport or sustainable mobility sector in Europe may fill in an entry form to put forward one or more candidates, in one or more categories.

Different people from the same entity (company, local authority, association, etc.) are free to submit separate entries.

► Who can I enter as a candidate ?

Anyone working in mobility in any European country can be a candidate, whether they are part of an industrial company, operator, transport organising authority, local authority, service company, non-profit organisation, ministry or government department, etc.

You can enter somebody as a candidate from within your own organisation or from another body.

Deciding on the Awards

The panel is composed of European journalists specialising in the transport sector. They have been chosen for their expertise and familiarity with the industry as a whole. They are independent of the Exhibition organisers.

The panel will make one award per category, and reserves the right to move a candidate from one category to another if appropriate. Internet users will also have the opportunity to vote for an award-winner from the shortlist published online on the Exhibition website: eumo-expo.com

Schedule

► April 30, 2020

Entry form submission deadline.

► May 18, 2020

Online voting by Internet users.

► June 8, 2020

End of the online voting by Internet users.

► June 24, 2020

Awards ceremony for the five winning Talents at European Mobility Expo 2020 in the presence of officials, members of the panel, partners, the European press and others.

5 'Talent'

Awards to win

BEST YOUNG TALENT

This prize has been created to reward a younger player in the sustainable mobility sector who has proved themselves in the course of projects developed within their organisation.

They will have shown themselves to be:

- creative,
- proactive,
- a good team player,
- enthusiastic.
- They must not be more than 30 years old.

BEST PROJECT MANAGER

This prize will be awarded to an individual (project manager, head of department, etc.) who has proved to be particularly outstanding in the creation, design and completion of a project.

They will have shown themselves to be:

- a leader,
- a good project manager,
- a good motivator,
- a good team leader.

BEST MANAGER

This prize will be awarded to a recognised manager or policymaker in the sector, who in addition to their technical skills used in their job, has put into play undisputed managerial qualities:

They will have shown themselves to be:

- coordinating all the internal and external stakeholders in a project,
- successfully conducting an outstanding and/or innovative project,
- demonstrating a high level of commitment to mobility.

SPECIAL CAREER SERVICE AWARD

This award will go to an individual who is well-known nationally or across Europe for services rendered to the sector throughout their career. The person must have made a significant, positive impact on the world of public transport through a distinctive contribution, product, practical achievement, advance, innovation, unifying action or other success. They must be wholeheartedly committed to sustainable mobility.

INTERNET USERS' AWARD

The winner of this prize will be determined by the outcome of a vote by professionals on the Exhibition website, eumo-expo.com. A shortlist of candidates will be presented for each category. The winner will be determined on the basis of the total number of votes cast for all categories.
